

In Honor of Dr Martin Luther King, Jr
Northwoods Unitarian Universalist Fellowship presents
Becoming MLK Jr's Dream

Sunday January 14, 2018
1:30pm Nicolet College Theater
5364 College Dr, Rhinelander, WI 54501

Speaker
Cara Fitzgerald

Last Spring, English teacher Cara Fitzgerald, a 2001 Rhinelander High School and 2005 UW-Madison graduate, along with three Madison Memorial High School educators, led an all school read of All American Boys, an award winning novel about race relations.

In her presentation entitled Creating Conversations in the Community, Fitzgerald will talk about how the book discussion and subsequent month-long activities were organized and describe the effects this activity had on students, parents and police liaisons. Fitzgerald will reflect upon the importance of community engagement. For further information regarding the all-school read, please refer to the following website: <http://jimmreads.weebly.com/rationale.html>

The event will feature footage from Martin Luther King, Jr.'s speeches. Children are encouraged to attend.

SPONSORED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH: Nicolet College . Eagle River First Congregational United Church of Christ . St Augustine's Episcopal Church . St Matthias Episcopal Church . Holy Family Catholic Church . North Central Labor Coalition . League of Women Voters of the Northwoods . Marywood Spirituality Center . Northwoods Branch American Association of University Women . Northern WI Center for Working People . Ascension Lutheran Church . Northwoods Progressives . For more information: Contact Diane Reupert at 715-282-5400 / dreupert@gmail.com