Fund Raiser: The fellowship high school students will be offering a luncheon after the April 8th service. This will be a fund raiser to support their trip to a homeless shelter and soup kitchen in Chicago. They will be working at the shelter over a weekend in late April. This trip is being planned with the help of Rev. Ms. Denise Tracy. There will be more information to come ---- But put this date on your calendar and come see what these youths cook up.

Coming of Age: This year's COA class is looking at a busy spring. The youth will be working in a homeless shelter, writing their faith statements, preparing for their May 20 program, and planning their year end trip to Boston. This is an exciting time. As of now there are 9 youth involved in COA and 4 COA graduates that will be traveling to Boston. We are in need of a male chaperone for this trip. If interested please contact Dawn Holt at 543-8168. (You do not need to be a parent of one of these youths to chaperone.)

Joys & Concerns

Terry Hoyt is back with us and doing well!

Thanks to the prompt attention of Building and Grounds Chairmen, Bob Dallapiazza the locks on our two outside doors work again and so does the dishwasher. Bob reminds us to use only dishwasher soap and not dish detergent in the dishwasher, else it's likely to oversuds and clog.

Thanks to Paul Braunstein, Jerry Woolpy, Patty Buehler, Joyce and Don Barnes, and Bev Strauss for bagging groceries, keeping records, and passing out goods at the Minocqua Food Pantry February 12th and 13th. Eighty-eight adults and forty-nine children were served.

Question: Question: In the 3rd century, addressing the question, "What is the final authority in our lives?" Origenes said, "Study science, philosophy and astronomy. Study history and other religions. The Bible is a gift for the educated and compassionate heart. Do not take it literally. The Mount Sinai that counts is not the mountain in the desert, but the heights inside your heart. Miracles are NOT events outside your heart." How are UUs informed by Origenes and what is the final authority in our lives? (Readers are encouraged to answer this question and comment on the answers provided by others.)

Answer from Dick Fields: My research indicates Origenes was a Greek born in Alexandria Egypt. He was a Christian, a teacher and a biblical scholar and was imprisoned and tortured for his teachings and died a few years thereafter. He was a Unitarian in that he believed Christ was subordinate to God in power and dignity.

Our Newsletter Editor asks the question, "What is the final authority in our lives?" I find this a difficult question to answer, even though I believe Origenes stated it is faith in love and the pursuit of freedom. To me this is not a satisfactory answer as it is too general and there has to be more to it than that. I feel more comfortable with the question, "What or who is the final authority in our lives?"

I do not believe the final authority is a Supreme Being. It is easy to say that the individual is the final authority and has to accept responsibility for his/her action. But it is selfish and uncivilized to believe one can do anything he wants to do as long as it feels good, as some preached in the 60's. To live in a civilized community, including our Fellowship, one has to consider what effect his actions has on others and he has to abide by certain rules/laws. For example, there could be utter chaos during our annual meetings if we did not follow an agreed upon system, such as Roberts Rule of Order or follow the democratic process. I do believe the individual is the final authority, but in order to coexist for the benefit of society one has to follow an ethical and thoughtful standard of behavior. If you are an ethical and loving individual then the "heights inside your heart" will inspire you to do the right thing.

Answer from Terry Hoyt: Origenes reinforces the tasks that UUs have set out for themselves. We seek the truth in all its hiding places: science, philosophy, astronomy, history and other religions. Long ago UUs rejected a literal interpretation of the Bible, but continue to find innumerable truths in the Bible.

The search for truth for UUs allows them to find final authority in different places. And it is what they have taken into their hearts that gives them strength, understanding and comfort.

We call ourselves a "beacon of light in the Northwoods". Our "beacon" is a beacon of illumination. We are willing to shine the light upon ideas that might otherwise be hidden. But our "beacon" is not to be confused with a light that is the source of all knowledge.

Here are words that I grew up with (and continue to believe in), "As Universalists we believe that mankind's spiritual development is best served through an attitude of free inquiry and of open mind. We impose no fixed creed but are associated in the spirit of these words:

Love is the doctrine of this Church,

The quest of Truth is its sacrament,

and Service is its prayer;

To dwell together in peace,

To seek knowledge in freedom,

To serve mankind in fellowship,

To the end that all souls shall grow into harmony with the Divine:

Thus do we covenant with each other and with our God.

What is a Worship Service?

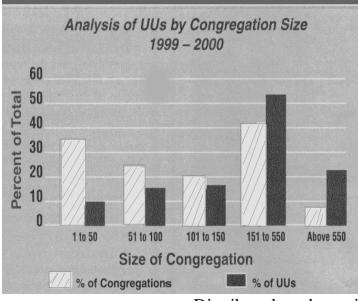

Excerpted from newsletter of First UUs of Wausau

Some UUs don't like the word, "worship" because it conjures up images of prostrating oneself before a God who is demanding, harsh, and maybe even sadistic. And the word may be distasteful to some who have bad memories of childhood worship services.

The word itself comes from the Old English, with the meaning, "worth-ship," a concept suggesting that we pay attention to that which is of worth.

Worship services should be meaningful. First of all, they should speak to our innermost concerns—our anxieties, our hurts, our fears, and also to our joys, our loves, our excitements. They should speak to our togetherness as a congregation, bringing us closer to one another as a community. While the sermon is usually the main portion, all the other parts—the music, the silences, the candles, the sharing of announcements about our church and community activities, the readings – all should work together, bringing a sense of unity and purpose and speaking to both our heads and hearts.

People come to church with varieties of feelings and needs: some may be on a high; others may be in a sort of ordinary, uninteresting place...and there are some people who come to church deeply hurting, with soul pain. And so, although humor and lightness may be appropriate to a certain degree, the worship service as a whole must speak to those varieties of spirit conditions. The service may serve people in a variety of ways; it may lift their spirits, challenge them, give them new hope, give them a change of direction...

UU World Reports 155,449 UUs in 1051 Congregations

Notice that a third of the UUA congregations have 50 or fewer adult members and more than half of the congregations have 100 or fewer adult members. (See UUWorld Magazine Jan/Feb p 54 and

Slow Dance

Annonymous poem of a dying child from Marshfield UU Newsletter

Have you ever watched kids on a merry-go-round? Or listened to the rain slapping on the ground? Ever followed a butterfly's erratic flight? Or gazed at the sun into the fading night? You better slow down. Don't dance so fast. Time is short. The music won't last. Do you run through each day on the fly? When you ask, "How are you?" Do you hear the reply? When the day is done do you lie in your bed With the next hundred chores running through your head? You'd better slow down. Don't dance so fast. Time is short. The music won't last. Ever told your child/spouse/parent/friend we'll do it tomorrow? And in your haste, not seen the sorrow? Ever lost touch, let a good friendship die 'cause you never had time to call and say "Hi"? You'd better slow down. Don't dance so fast. Time is short. The music won't last. When you run so fast to get somewhere You miss half the fun of getting there. When you worry and hurry through your day. It is like an unopened gift thrown away. Life is not a race. Do take it slower. Hear the music before the song is over.
