We are a Welcoming Congregation
Sunday mornings at 10 a.m.

Unitarian Universalists believe more than one thing. We think for ourselves, and reflect together, about Life's important questions.

.. Our beliefs are diverse and inclusive. We have no shared creed. Our shared covenant supports "the free and responsible search for truth and meaning." Though Unitarianism and Universalism were both liberal Christian traditions, this responsible search has led us to embrace diverse teachings from Eastern and Western religions and philosophies.

We light this chalice for the light of truth.
We light this chalice for the warmth of love.
We light this chalice for the energy of action.

The Social Justice Committee is seeking new members. As you know, social justice has always been and continues to be at the heart of Unitarian Universalism. Each year NUUF sponsors a community-wide program to commemorate Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service. We would like to continue and broaden our efforts. Many of you are involved in ongoing social justice activities and would bring much needed energy to our shrinking committee. Please consider joining us.

Our next Social Justice Committee meeting is on May 19 at 11:30 a.m. after the service. Anyone is welcome to attend and we are asking for new members.

- Ascension Koller Behavioral Health will be offering Mental Health First Aid training at Saint Mary's Hospital on July 22, 2019 and November 18, 2019. This groundbreaking eight-hour training course gives people the tools to identify when someone might be struggling with a mental health or substance use problem and to connect them with appropriate support and resources when necessary. One in five Americans has a mental illness, but many are reluctant to seek help or might not know where to turn for care. Unlike physical conditions, symptoms of mental health and substance use problems can be difficult to detect. For friends and family members, it can be hard to know when and how to step in. As a result, those in need of mental health services often do not get them until it is too late. Just as CPR helps even those without clinical training assist an individual having a heart attack, Mental Health First Aid prepares participants to interact with a person experiencing a mental health crisis. Mental Health First Aiders learn a 5-step action plan that guides them through the process of reaching out and offering appropriate support.

“Through this program, we hope to take the fear and hesitation out of starting conversations about mental health and substance use problems,” says Linda Rosenberg President and CEO of the National Council for Behavioral Health, which helped bring Mental Health First Aid to the U.S. in 2008. “When more people are equipped with the tools they need to start a dialogue, more people can get the help they may need.”

For more information or to participate in a Mental Health First Aid training in Rhinelander, visit www.mentalhealthfirstaid.org or contact Angela Kirkham, RN at 715-361-4876 or angela.kirkham@ascension.org

 - Monday, June 10, Seek First to Understand, 9:30-11:30 a.m. People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care. How easy is it to assert our own opinions or give advice rather than listen? How well do we listen to the wisdom that is available to us from a multitude of sources? In this workshop you will learn how to improve your listening skills and build trust in your relationships with others as well as yourself.
 - Tuesday, June 25, Who Am I Now?, 9:30-11:30 a.m. “Change is constant. Growth is optional.” When circumstances change, our own identity may be put into question. Children leave the nest. Parents die. Jobs change. During these times, one may wonder, “Who Am I Now?” Based on the work of teacher William Bridges, author of Transitions, learn ways to better understand the notion of change and learn ways to adapt and recreate yourself.

Monday, July 15 Gift of Years (Aging), 9:30 a.m.-noon. Growing older has its challenges. We want to live a long life, but we don't necessarily like the idea of being old. For some, the best of life seems over as early as the age of fifty, yet others still have a zest for life at ninety. What characteristics help one embrace later years? Learn what research has found and walk away with renewed inspirat

- Combustible Company and The Scott Reed Theater present: “Monster Heart” June 21 and 23 at the Scott Reed Theater. What is in the heart of a monster? This dreamlike adaptation takes a new look at Mary Shelley’s classic “Frankenstein,” focusing on the life of its author and her relationship to the poet Percy Bysshe Shelley. The love affair of Mary and Percy entwines with the complex relationship of Victor Frankenstein and his creature to explore the making of monsters. Electrifying movement, poetry and puppetry combine to create an unconventional love story that moves from graveyard to laboratory to society salon - revealing the labor of creation, the quest for immortality, the rejection of the "other" and a struggle to love in the midst of it all.

Combustible Company is a St Paul-based theatre company founded in 2013 that uses actors’ physicality to create visceral performances that spark the imagination and ignite conversation. Last year they were thrilled to present their original production "Flying and Falling" at the Scott Reed Theater.

THE POWER OF WE UUA General Assembly Spokane, Washington | June 19-23

General Assembly is the annual meeting of our Unitarian Universalist Association. Attendees worship, witness, learn, connect, and make policy for the Association through democratic process. Anyone may attend; congregations must certify annually to send voting delegates. The 2019 General Assembly will be June 19-23 in Spokane, Washington. Most General Assembly events will be held in the Spokane Convention Center.

The Power of We

What do we want Unitarian Universalism to be? It is a time when we are asking big questions in our faith, and GA 2019 will be focused on digging into those questions together. It is a critical chance for congregational leaders and passionate UUs to set new goals and aspirations for our religious community. Help begin to reshape our Association and our congregations in new and powerful ways.

This year's theme is about collective power, "The Power of We," as well as the possibility, the purpose, the struggle and the joy of what it means to be together in faithful community. In the past two years, Unitarian Universalism has recommitted to the work of liberation inside and outside our faith community. The antidote to a time of dangerous dehumanization is a love that connects us to our deeper humanity. Come to Spokane to experience what our shared faith can become when we embrace the Power of We.

Pastime Club

Dear Friends and Neighbors:

We are pleased to report that the involvement in the Pastime program continues to grow. Word has gotten out about the value of the program to both those with dementia and their caregivers. With your help we have been able to purchase equipment, games and various activities to enhance the lives of those with dementia. We have devoted, trained staff that ensures the days are filled with stimulating undertakings.

Annually, we continue to receive restricted grants from Alzheimer's Foundation of America and Northwoods United Way. We rely on many other organizations and personal donations for the everyday expenses of maintaining a professional staff and other overhead expenses and have been blessed to have the facilities at Ascension Lutheran Church at no cost.

With the growth of participation in the program, we need more volunteers. Perhaps you would care to come for an hour or two to see what is involved. Volunteers choose the day and time - weekly, monthly - as fits their schedule. Mary Anne Kellner, Director, would be pleased to answer your questions. She can be reached at (715) 358-3404 or speak to any of the Board Members.

The Pastime Club would like to thank you for your previous contributions to our mission of providing a caring, enriching program for those with mild to medium dementia in our community. Please consider a tax-deductible donation this year to the Pastime Club. It is a great way to support your local friends and neighbors, who may be dealing with a loved one who has dementia or Alzheimer's disease. We are dependent upon and are appreciative of your donation.

Sincerely,

The Board of Directors
